

Optimist Club makes three $5,300 donations

Date: Mar 12, 2008

<http://www.simcoe.com/article/66323>

Submitted photo

Secretary treasurer for the Optimist Club Sandy Croswell, YMCA centre director Katie Garbett, Simcoe Muskoka YMCA vice president Paul Robinson, Optimist Club president Anne Crampton, Sail Parry Sound president Larry Woolner, Sail Parry Sound director community relations Wade Perkins; Big Brothers & Sisters president Rob Mens, and Optimist Club director Larry Barnes.

The Optimist club recently made donations of $5,300 to three local organizations. The club selected these recipients with the following criteria in mind; charitable status; focus on youth programs; scope and level of impact; reputation and benefit/need for the community at large. The following organization received a donation: the YMCA, for youth programs and facility needs; Big Brothers & Sisters, for in school mentoring program; and Sail Parry Sound, for Youth Sail Training Facility development.

Pictured are, secretary treasurer for the Optimist Club Sandy Croswell, YMCA centre director Katie Garbett, Simcoe Muskoka YMCA vice president Paul Robinson, Optimist Club president Anne Crampton, Sail Parry Sound president Larry Woolner, Sail Parry Sound director community relations Wade Perkins; Big Brothers & Sisters president Rob Mens, and Optimist Club director Larry Barnes.